

Another cancellation of the scheduled creditors' meeting

Corporate News - December 2020

Due to the ongoing regulatory requirements for the protection against health risks associated with the virus and the resulting non-approval of the creditors' meeting, the CARPEVIGO AG creditors' meeting convened by an announcement in the Federal Gazette on 2 December 2020 is cancelled,

The meeting will take place on a date and location that has yet to be determined, will be announced in a separate convening notice.
